died early Sunday morning when the Kay car plunged into open water. Kay apparently lost his way in the darkness and did not see the water, kept open by currents around the point. (Daily Press Photo)

Influenza Wave Closes Schools In Six States

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Influenza outbreaks curtailed school activities today in some sections of the Midwest and Southwest.

In Texas, schools were closed in at least seven towns and dozens of other communities reported a high incidence of the illness.

"It's too early to say now that we have a state-wide epidemic," said Dr. George Cox, Texas health director. But he added that the outbreak had reached epidemic proportions in some isolated areas.

Absentees Increase
Large-scale absenteeism was reported in schools in Western Missouri. In Kansas City 49 classrooms in the public schools lacked teachers yesterday and many pupils were sick. Parochial schools said about 800 of 3,500 pupils were absent. The influenza was a mild form.

At Joplin, Mo., 1,195 of 7,000 pupils were absent and at Columbia attendance in the public schools was off about 25 per cent. Influenza patients at the University of Missouri have increased steadily since the Christmas holidays.

Denver Hard Hit
The Health Department in New Mexico said the disease was sweeping through the state. Some schools had one out of every four students and teachers ill.

Flu hit Southern Colorado two weeks ago now is reported heavy in the Denver area. Twenty per cent of the pupils were absent yesterday. Teachers also have been hit. Some cases have been severe, requiring hospitalization of almost a week.

A mild form of influenza also moved into some Eastern Kansas areas.

'FROZEN WOMAN' RECOVERS — "I hate sympathy," says Mrs. Dorothy Mae Stevens, 25, as she irons following recovery from being frozen stiff during 12-below-zero weather last winter. Her body temperature had dropped to 34 degrees. Despite amputation of hands and feet, Mrs. Stevens does housework and visits hospitals to cheer the handicapped. (NEA Telephone)

Airmen Blamed In Death Of 87

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Short (R-Mo.) today termed "inexcusable" the crash of an Air Force C124 Globemaster which killed 87 persons in aviation's worst accident near Seattle Dec. 20.

He made the statement as the House Armed Services Committee recalled Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg and other top Air Force officials to continue a probe of seven military accidents which claimed 234 lives in November and December.

Another 55 persons were killed in two other military accidents in the Far East during that period.

Short, to be chairman of the committee, said the "oversight" of crewmen was mainly responsible for the "inexcusable" Globemaster crash. "This," he told a reporter, "means the Air Force has to tighten up its training program."

Air Force officials testified last week that the Globemaster crashed because of locked controls designed to hold the plane against surface winds when on the ground.

The pilot, they said, has the ultimate responsibility for making sure they are unlocked before the takeoff. This also is part of the flight engineer's job, and the copilot is in position to see if they have been released, they added.

The officials said the Globemaster is being re-designed to minimize chances of future errors.

Branded Blackmail
Arthur H. Dean, Standard Attorney, called the proposition "cold and outrageous blackmail" and said his company would have no part in it.

At the same time, Stephen J. Spingarn, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, called for congressional investigation of the oil companies, including what he described as "the propaganda campaign of vilification they are waging against their own government in 16 foreign countries."

Spingarn, a Democrat, contended that any backing down by the U. S. government would play directly into the hands of Soviet interests abroad.

Missouri Mother Swears In 3 Sons To State Offices
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—A mother administered the oath of office to her three sons in the Missouri Capitol yesterday and commented:

"It is with great love and faith in you, my three sons, that I have administered this oath of office. I'm proud to be your mother."

She is Mrs. James T. Blair, widow of a State Supreme Court justice. She was appointed a notary public especially for the ceremony in the Missouri Senate chamber.

The brothers are Lt. Gov. James T. Blair Jr., Circuit Judge Sam C. Blair and Cole County Probate Judge William C. Blair.

Senate Committees Set To Start Work

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican majority sought to clear the way for the Senate to start work by completing today the committee assignments of all GOP senators.

The key assignments, which determine what sort of legislative career a senator follows, were largely settled yesterday at a series of closed-door sessions.

They come today before the Conference of All GOP Senators, where the final decisions will be made.

Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), the majority leader, arranged to have the full Senate ratify both the majority and minority committee assignments later in the day.

Eisenhower Command Tackles Top Problems At Home And Abroad

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
NEW YORK (AP)—Reduction of federal spending, how to deal with communism at home and abroad, foreign aid and government reorganization reportedly are tagged for priority study by the Eisenhower high command meeting again today.

Those are problems, it was learned, which President-elect Eisenhower and his key associates consider must get first attention of the new administration which takes office next Tuesday.

Secrecy Maintained
Eisenhower, Cabinet designees and other top officials have been appointed met for 4½ hours yesterday and discussed "the future duties of the administration, foreign and domestic."

Except for adding that the group had arranged to hold another session today, Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, declined to say anything more.

The secrecy order, applicable to the entire group, was understood to have come from Eisenhower himself, although Hagerty did not say so.

Vice President-elect Nixon called the first conference "very helpful and productive," but he said he could not go beyond that.

Spending Cut Studied
It was understood, however, that matters such as finding ways to cut the $78,600,000,000 federal budget which President Truman submitted to Congress last Friday were among top problems which Eisenhower felt should be discussed at the two-day conference.

So was the problem of internal security—how to deal with communism and subversion at home. During the campaign, Eisenhower sharply criticized the Truman administration's handling of that problem, and he pledged that the Republicans would handle it better.

Foreign policy generally, and specifically what to do about the Korean War stalemate, were also said to be "must" subjects, along with the amount and distribution of foreign aid to help fight the Communist threat.

Eisenhower has devoted much study to plans for reorganization of the executive branch and there was a possibility the conference group would get a report on a survey being made by a special committee the general named in November.

Hot Words Wreck
Compromise Offer
In Oil Trust Case

By JACK ADAMS
WASHINGTON (AP)—A Justice Department offer to compromise its antitrust action against an alleged international oil cartel bogged down today amid hot words pointing to almost certain rejection.

One major prospective defendant, Standard Oil of New Jersey, turned down the offer and thus apparently killed hopes of compromise since the government offer was made on condition that all of the companies concerned accept it.

Branded Blackmail
Arthur H. Dean, Standard Attorney, called the proposition "cold and outrageous blackmail" and said his company would have no part in it.

At the same time, Stephen J. Spingarn, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, called for congressional investigation of the oil companies, including what he described as "the propaganda campaign of vilification they are waging against their own government in 16 foreign countries."

Spingarn, a Democrat, contended that any backing down by the U. S. government would play directly into the hands of Soviet interests abroad.

Tanker To Defy
Iran Blockade

ROME (AP)—A 40-year-old tanker flying the Italian flag was reported at the southern of the Red Sea today on the way to the Persian Gulf for a new try at running Britain's blockade on Iranian oil.

It is the first attempt to break the blockade since the tanker Rosemary ended up at Aden with 800 tons—$40,000 worth—of oil purchased from Iran's nationalized oil industry by Italian and Swiss firms.

Britain claims all oil from the Abadan refinery as property of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company pending a settlement of its deadlocked dispute with Iran's government over the nationalization of the refinery and other of the company's vast holdings in Iran. A British court at Aden, at the southern end of the Red Sea, ruled last Friday that the Rosemary's cargo belonged to the Anglo-Iranian company but the ship's captain and the oil companies which chartered her plan an appeal.

The latest reported challenger of the British blockade is the 7,000-ton Mirella, built in 1913. She sailed from Genoa Dec. 26 and passed through the Suez Canal just a week ago.

Tough Decisions Face President Before Tuesday

By ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman began his last week in the White House today—as busy as ever and beset by eleven-hour problems ranging from oil to atom spies.

In an atmosphere of mild confusion around his office, the outgoing President is cleaning out his desk, dispatching dozens of farewell letters and shaking hands with a steady stream of well-wishers.

Spies Seek Clemency
But all the time, right to the end of his administration, he must make decisions which no one but a president may make.

One particularly vexing one is the Rosenberg case.

Sometime between now and next Tuesday noon, when his term expires, he may have to decide whether the convicted atomic spies, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, shall live or die.

A word-wide propaganda campaign urging clemency for the Rosenbergs has been sparked by Communists. Protests have come from other sources, too, that the death penalty is unduly severe.

Famed scientist Albert Einstein announced at Princeton, N. J., yesterday that he had written Truman that "my conscience compels me to urge you to commute the death sentences."

Attorneys Study Case
The Rosenbergs' appeal for executive clemency was filed Saturday. Justice Department pardon attorneys began studying records of the case yesterday. Their recommendation may or may not be ready for Truman before he leaves office.

The expectation in official circles is that the President will decide.

Remington Again Up For Perjury

NEW YORK (AP)—The second perjury trial of William W. Remington, charged with falsely denying he gave government secrets to a Soviet spy courier, was scheduled to start today after months of delay.

The Federal Court trial was expected to get under way without further defense or prosecution motions, which have led to postponement several times since last April.

Remington's new trial is based on an indictment containing five counts of perjury allegedly committed while he was on the witness stand at his previous seven-week trial here just two years ago.

Remington, 35, former $10,000-a-year Department of Commerce economist, was convicted in February, 1951, on a perjury charge that he lied when he swore before a federal grand jury that he never had been a Communist party member.

In the fall of 1951, the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals here upset the verdict and ordered a new trial. The government then obtained the new indictment on which he now is to be tried.

Remington appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court for outright acquittal, but his plea was denied in February, 1952. This left the way clear for the new trial.

Soviets Violate Japanese Border

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
TOKYO (AP)—Japan, irritated by "at least 20 or 30" violations of its borders, today warned Russia against sending warplanes over Japanese territory.

A Foreign Office spokesman said U. S. defense planes would shoot down intruders if necessary.

The U. S. had approved Japan's ultimatum in advance.

Japan thus in effect rattled a U. S. saber against its old enemy to the north. It did not name Russia, but left no doubt that's the country it meant.

Shortly after the blunt warning, Gen. Mark Clark's headquarters announced the Far East commander had ordered his defense chiefs in Japan to take "all measures necessary to prevent further violations of Japan's security or acts which endanger U. S. forces."

A Japanese government spokesman said planes flying without permission over Japan would be ordered to land.

"When they don't follow our orders," Mitsuo Tanaka of the Foreign Office told a news conference, "if necessary we will shoot them down."

Inaugural Float To Get Dog Team

WASHINGTON (AP)—Snow or no snow—and officials hope there is none—there will be a five-dog team of Alaskan huskies in the Eisenhower-Nixon Inaugural Parade next Tuesday.

The team and its driver, Charley E. Cannon of Anchorage, will accompany Alaska's float. Inaugural officials hope the weather will be such that it will be necessary to attach wheels to the sled.

In other inaugural preparations: The official 50-page, $1.50-copy program started coming off the press; 36 military aircraft, the vanguard of about 460, arranged to rendezvous near the capital today to plan for a mass flight over the city during the parade. There have been some protests that this demonstration by military planes will be unduly hazardous. The Air Force said it would go off if weather conditions are favorable.

Four Networks Carry Inaugural
NEW YORK (AP)—Coast to coast radio will be broadcasting its eighth presidential inauguration next Tuesday to the biggest list of stations hooked together for that event. The four networks figure they will have more than 1,300 regular units, plus FM stations all over the country and short wave transmitters sending the signals around the world.

The preliminaries will start around 10:30 a. m., continuing with the swearing-in and concluding with description of the parade. Voices familiar to the radio audience over the years will help out with the word pictures. Among them will be George Hicks of NBC, Bob Trout of CBS, John Daly of ABC and Fulton Lewis Jr. of MBS.

As is the case with television, which has scheduled a five-hour pickup, each radio network will have separate posts for the broadcasts.

Diver Recovers Bodies Of Two Stonington Residents

The bodies of a Stonington brother and sister, victims of the worst ice-travel tragedy in Delta county in many years, were recovered today from Little Bay de Noc near Gladstone shore in 47 feet of water.

John Kay, 23, and his sister, Norma, 11, children of Albert Kay, Stonington farmer, died sometime early Sunday morning when the Kay car ran into a strip of open water about 500 feet off-shore east of Gladstone's pump station point.

Don Bichler, Escanaba diver, brought the body of the girl to the surface at 11 a. m. Forty-five minutes later he had recovered the body of her brother.

Driver Lost Way

Bichler removed the bodies from the Kay car, which he found upside down in the mud of the bottom. He had to clear away the mud before a car door could be opened.

Lloyd Hulett, officer in charge of the Coast Guard lighthouse station at Escanaba, said that tracks made by the Kay car indicated the driver had lost his way and was returning to Gladstone when the car hit the open water.

The tire marks led from the bay straight into the open water. The tragedy occurred in the darkness sometime early Sunday morning. Kay and his sister left Escanaba at 1 a. m. Sunday after visiting friends here.

Handkerchief Found

Officers and volunteers, assisted by Fred Sensiba, flying a Pioneer Aviation plane, searched Sunday afternoon and Monday before the site of the tragedy was located.

Besides the back-tracking of the car, the site was also fixed by the finding of a handkerchief and a piece of cardboard frozen in the edge of the ice near where the car had gone down. These were found by Gene Holm and Phil Martin of Gladstone.

In dragging yesterday afternoon sheriff's officers hooked onto the car. Work was resumed this morning under the direction of Sheriff

William E. Miron.

Bichler found the car within 15 minutes after descending to the bottom. The four inches of ice, however, had to be strengthened with planks before diving operations could be started. This work was done by Bill and Gunnar Nelson, Masonville commercial fishermen.

Headed For Gladstone

The tracks of the Kay car revealed that Kay had driven to the Stonington shore from Gladstone, a distance of one and one-quarter miles, Hulett said.

Apparently unable to find the roadway leading from Twin Springs park to the Stonington road, Kay had driven back toward the lights of Gladstone. The car was headed along the shore when it struck the open water off the pump station point, kept from freezing by strong currents.

The road to Stonington across the "ice bridge" had been marked Saturday with occasional evergreen trees, cut and stuck in the ice. Kay probably missed these in the darkness, Hulett believes.

The county plows open the road to Twin Springs park on the shore but they do not plow the winter roadway across the bay. The plowing to the Park is paid for by Stonington residents who are employed in Escanaba and use the ice for a "short cut."

One Son Survives

Using the "ice bridge" shortens the travel distance to Stonington by about 15 miles.

The deaths of John and Norma leave but one child surviving to Albert Kay, a widower. He is Herman Kay, serving with the U. S. Army in Korea. Mrs. Kay died in 1946. The eldest son, George, was a casualty in World War II.

Bichler was assisted in diving operations by a crew that included William Allingham, Victor Peterson and Paul Johnson of Escanaba.

Sheriff's officers, State Police, Gladstone city police, Conservation Department and U. S. Coast Guard personnel aided in the search for the missing car and its occupants and in the recovery of the bodies.

The bodies were taken to the Anderson funeral home in Escanaba.

Robert Mead, 68, Dies In Batavia

Robert Mead, 68, former Escanaba resident and brother of the late Dr. Harold Mead, died recently in Batavia, N. Y., friends here have been informed. Burial was made in Batavia.

Mr. Mead operated a jewelry store in Batavia for many years. He was a graduate of the Escanaba High School. He is survived by his wife.

WITH HONORS—A/1c Thomas Srock of the Motor Vehicle received the well done award upon his recent graduation from the Vehicle Operator course with honor at Francis E. Warren AFB. Airmen Srock, a son of Mrs. Margaret Srock, Gladstone, Rte. 1, entered the service two years ago. He now has returned to his station at Sewart AFB, Smyrna, Tenn.

Escanaba Kiwanis Club Looks Back On 31-Year Activities

Past and future were combined in the Escanaba Kiwanis Club program at the House of Ludington Monday noon as the club looked back on 31 years of service to the community and mapped activities for the new year of 1953 under its new president, Harold Gasman.

James H. Jackson, president of the club in 1942, acted as chairman of the program. Fred Johnson supplied facts pertinent to the 38th anniversary of Kiwanis International, observed Jan. 21, and called attention to the fact that the organization of over 3,500 clubs now claimed more than 213,000 members. William J. Miller read an anniversary message from Kiwanis International and John J. Bartella, president of the local club in 1925, summed up the accomplishments of the 32 past presidents of Escanaba Kiwanis since 1922.

A 25-year membership citation and lapel pin were presented to Wes Haddock by William Warmington, 1947 president.

Fred Johnson, ladies night program chairman, announced that the annual club event would be held the night of Feb. 9.

Straits Bridge Need Is Cited

Michigan has an impressive history of industrial development, its vast resources are far from depleted, but the present need is a bridge at the Straits of Mackinac to bring physical unity to the state's two peninsulas, Charles A. Burton, Gladstone businessman, yesterday told the Escanaba Rotary Club.

"Michigan Our Michigan" was the topic of Burton's talk. He was introduced by Atty. James Fitzharris of the Escanaba Rotary Club's program committee.

"The Mackinac Straits Bridge not only must but will be built," Burton declared in recounting the economic and social forces supporting the bridge proposal.

Bridge Practicable

In describing the proposed "connecting link" at the Straits, Burton pointed out that vehicular traffic at the Straits has increased from 16 cars transported by ferry in 1916 to 794,000 in 1952.

Engineers employed by the Mackinac Bridge Authority have reported the proposed bridge is entirely practicable, both physically and economically.

"They have gone into every phase of the problem and there is nothing at the Straits of Mackinac, including ice, wind, current, rock floor and a combination of all four they have not encountered before, and for which they have not been able to design," Burton said.

Revenues Pay Cost

Length of the proposed bridge totals five miles, with a central main span of 3,800 feet. Its cost has been estimated at $76,300,000.

with financing cost at $11,000,000.

On the basis of 1952 figures, traffic analysis experts predict that revenues will pay for its cost in 20 years without financial assistance from the state or federal government.

Such a bridge would end traffic uncertainties, meet national defense needs, end present operational losses of the state ferries, create new markets for goods and services, create new business opportunities, encourage tourist travel, and physically unite the state, Burton said.

Norstrom Heads Road Commission

The Delta County Road Commission held its annual organizational meeting yesterday at the Road Commission office in Wells and reappointed William Karas as superintendent-engineer; C. R. Rose as assistant engineer and George Peterson as assistant superintendent.

Hilding Norstrom of Gladstone was elected chairman of the board. Other commissioners are Omer Tanguay, Bark River, recently appointed; and Elmer Klaseff, Escanaba.

Bonus Surplus May Cut Deficit

LANSING (AP)—State Treasurer D. Hale Brake proposed today to reduce the state's $65,000,000 general fund deficit $6,500,000 by using surplus veterans' bonus money.

Brake said he would ask the State Administrative Board to approve the plan.

He said the State Treasury has $8,480,000 in cash and securities, not including bonds it rebought, laid aside to meet bonus claims.

He said the state could take at least $6,500,000 of this sum to reduce its deficit and still have enough on hand to meet bonus claims for the next five or six years on a conservative estimate.

He suggested using the surplus and earnings to buy up bonus bonds, thus relieving the State Treasury of that load.

If the claims from dependents of men killed in the Korean War should exceed expectations, Brake said, the Legislature still has borrowing power left for bonus money.

Sawdo House At Fayette Burned

GARDEN — (Special)—Henry Sawdo, about 75, of Fayette, was left homeless Monday afternoon when fire of undetermined origin destroyed the seven-room house in which he lived.

Sawdo, who lived with another Fayette man in the house, was treated by a Delta County physician. The aged man was not burned, and his condition is reported good.

Neighbors and Howard Gierke, township supervisor, assisted Sawdo in finding new lodging.

1952 Saw More Births, Fewer Deaths In County

Births in Delta County in 1952 will top all previous records according to provisional figures released by the health department and county clerk's office.

To date, 836 births have been recorded at the office of the county clerk. This figure however does not include December births, which the health department reports totaled 80 for Delta residents.

Putting the two together would give a total of 916 births here in 1952. This figure is higher by 50 than the previous record of 866 in 1947.

Nine babies were born to Gladstone residents, 40 to Escanabans and 31 to rural residents during December, the health department reports. In addition there were six non-resident births in the county last month.

Marriages Decreasing

The Delta County birth rate has fluctuated in the past 12 years, particularly in the war period, but in general has shown an upward trend from 657 in 1940 to the present 916.

This increasing birth rate may not continue, however, for the marriage rate in Delta County has been steadily decreasing since 1946, when there were 470 marriages.

The past year saw only 254 couples exchanging nuptial vows. In the intervening years since 1946, the number of marriages per year was as follows: 1947—440; 1948—373; 1949—313; 1950—311; 1951—295.

Death Total Low

The marriage figure the past two years has approximated the 1945 figure, which showed 299 Delta County marriages.

There were 42 divorces granted in 1952.

Deaths in 1952 totaled 308, according to the provisional report. With exception of 1949, when there were 303 Delta deaths, the 1952 death total is the lowest in the past 12 years.

Twenty-two resident deaths were recorded in Delta County in December. Of these, two were from Gladstone, nine from Escanaba and 11 from rural areas. There were four non resident deaths.

The birth and death figures for Delta County from 1940 to 1952, as released by the Delta-Memominee Health Department, are as follows:

Year	Births	Deaths
1940	657	371
1941	690	392
1942	595	370
1943	663	373
1944	628	337
1945	608	342
*1946	772	337
*1947	866	398
1948	814	335
*1949	847	303
*1950	796	327
*1951	819	389
*1952	846	308

Give To The March Of Dimes; Join The Fight Against Polio

DELTA County should find no difficulty in reaching its quota for the March of Dimes campaign this year.

During the past year there were 57 infantile paralysis cases in Delta County with three deaths. The epidemic was probably the worst on record in this county and Delta County was hardest hit of all the counties in the Upper Peninsula.

In the face of our own experiences with the tragedy of polio, it is extremely unlikely that the residents of Delta County will fail to meet their quota for this important campaign. The goal in Delta County this year is $10,000. This is an insignificant quota in comparison with the tremendous costs of treating even those cases of infantile paralysis that are already under treatment. And, of course, there probably will be more such cases in 1953.

But not all of the money raised in the March of Dimes campaign each year goes for treatment costs. A substantial portion is set aside to carry on the very essential and important research work, the program that offers the real hope that someday medical science will find not only a cure for polio, but also a preventive procedure.

Virtually all of us in Delta County know some of these 1952 victims of polio in our own county. In the main, they are just youngsters, too young even to comprehend the ill-fate that has befallen them and too young to understand the long, tedious and costly rehabilitation program that lies ahead.

They must necessarily look to us to help them. And that's where the March of Dimes fits into the picture. And you.

The National Foundation this year provided emergency funds for polio relief in Delta County. More may be needed in 1953. The way to meet this problem is to contribute as generously as you can to the March of Dimes campaign in Delta County. A portion of the funds remains here to assist in the local rehabilitation program. A portion goes to national headquarters for research purposes and for providing the emergency aid to epidemic areas.

Out of every dollar spent by the March of Dimes in 1952, almost 70 cents went towards the care of polio patients. Most of the remainder was used for research purposes.

Government Grants Are No Cure-All

ADVANCE indications are that General Eisenhower as President will seek to maintain the Point Four program of technical assistance to underdeveloped areas. Yet at the same time signs exist that he will attempt to go well beyond that to a more realistic plan of international economic development.

Like the Marshall Plan, the Point Four idea was an original notion marked by high purpose. It goes beyond the mere doling out of financial help, to the granting instead of equipment and technical guidance that will aid backward lands to get their own economies on a higher self-sustaining basis.

Spelled out, this has meant sending agricultural experts into India to teach Indian farmers how to improve their crop yields, how to care for their soil, how to use new seed and animal feed and better farm machinery. It has meant sending health and sanitation specialists into many places to try to create healthful conditions of living and working.

This aid, especially as it affects food production in India and elsewhere, has proved its worth. No one who looks carefully at the present and prospective future benefits will question Point Four's value.

What can be put in question is how much of the development load Point Four can carry. In promoting and defending the program, the Truman administration has seemed to say that Point Four is the supreme answer to the troubles of the underdeveloped regions. But there is strong reason to believe this is not the case at all.

Bringing these lands out of the economic morass is not just a matter of making their peoples healthier, boosting food output and teaching them some industrial tricks. They eventually will need substantial increases in industrial plant and equipment if they are ever to satisfy many of their basic needs and thus raise their over-all living standards.

Government grants could help to achieve this goal, but we are trying earnestly to get away from this sort of program. Experience with the Marshall Plan has shown that government grants are no economic cure-all.

The most hopeful solution lies in greater private American investment in these foreign lands. American capital is eager to find outlet there; businessmen here ask only that a "favorable climate" be created. By that they mean that the underdeveloped nations should assure America its investments will be adequately protected against unwarranted seizure, excessive taxation, and similar exploitation.

The Doctor Says... Child Takes Vitamins A and D When Diet Is Short on Them

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D. — Written for NEA Service

In this column vitamins A and D will be discussed together, both because they have many features in common and because they are primarily of interest to children, since most groupings get what they need of these vitamins (with rare exceptions) without giving them any special thought.

Lack of enough vitamin A may cause eye difficulties. The first symptom of eye trouble of this kind is night blindness. Inability to see well in a dim light caused by deficiency of vitamin A is cured promptly by giving extra doses of this vitamin.

There are other kinds of poor night vision which do not respond to such treatment, of course. Therefore, the claim that vitamin A will aid drivers of automobiles and lessen their chances of having accidents at night is not warranted.

Vitamin A is also supposed to be helpful in the treatment of certain kinds of skin conditions, but only when they are caused by a lack of this vitamin in the diet. Vitamin A is not considered to be helpful in the prevention of influenza, colds or other infections.

Likewise, the claim that taking enough vitamin A will prevent the formation of kidney stones is probably not justified. It is present in liver oils of several fish, in butter, cheese, egg yolk and many vegetables.

The term, vitamin D, is applied to at least two substances which are known to aid in the proper use by the body of calcium and phosphorus. Consequently, this vitamin is recognized as a specific method of treating certain conditions in which calcium is not properly used.

These conditions are rickets, a kind of bone softening in children, infantile tetany and probably some other conditions in which there is abnormal use of calcium and phosphorus.

VITAMINS HELP TEETH

There is reason to believe that vitamin D also plays an important part in tooth formation, but it is doubtful that this substance is the only important element in the prevention of such diseases of the teeth as caries. This vitamin is also present in almost exactly the same foods as vitamin A.

In children particularly, combinations of vitamin A and D are frequently given during the winter months with the purpose of improving bone and tooth formation.

This is particularly important in winter because in northern climates at least, the sun is less powerful and the skin of children is less exposed to the sun. At such times, therefore, the vitamin D which is formed by exposing the skin to sunlight may be insufficient to supply the necessary amounts.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

(Ed. Note.—This is the first of a series of Washington Merry-Go-Round columns in which Drew Pearson diagnoses the Eisenhower cabinet. Today's brass ring goes to new Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey.)

WASHINGTON—The man who will collect your taxes in the Eisenhower administration, who will partially determine how much those taxes are, and who will have a major voice in the question of inflation, deflation, loans to Europe and borrowings at home, is a modest, unpublished businessman from Cleveland, Ohio.

George M. Humphrey, the new Secretary of the Treasury, is chairman of seven big corporations, president of three, and on the board of directors of 34. His total assets of $2,600,000—almost as much as the national budget prior to the Roosevelt administration.

Looking over Mr. Humphrey's record and his prospective colleagues in the cabinet, you come to this conclusion: Gen. Eisenhower has picked a conservative businessmen's cabinet, but he has picked the first team.

The general calibre of his appointees is far ahead of other GOP administrations under Hoover, Coolidge, Harding. And if a conservative government does not survive in this country it will not be because Eisenhower has picked second-raters.

He is definitely going to bat with the first team. And the next four years under it will be among the most important in recent history. They will also be extremely important—and fascinating—to watch.

Big Holding Company

The new Secretary of the Treasury typifies the first team. With almost no fanfare, he has built up one of the bigger holding corporations of the nation. The M. A. Hanna Company, which he heads, controls the biggest coal company in the world, steamship companies, steel mills, rayon factories, vast ore deposits, a sugar company, and one of the biggest banks in Cleveland.

This background has the advantage of bringing great ability to government, but it also puts a cabinet member under constant fire for possible favors to his own far-flung companies. In the past three weeks, for instance, two companies owned by the future Secretary of the Treasury received tax write-offs of more than $22,000,000.

One tax write-off was on an iron ore project in Dickinson County, Michigan, on which the Hanna Coal and Ore Co. got a 75 per cent tax amortization on a $11,345,000 investment. The other was a 70 per cent write-off on $22,000,000 to the Hanna Coal and Ore Co. in Douglas County, Ore., for ferro-nickel facilities.

Fortunately for Mr. Humphrey, these tax concessions were granted by a Democratic administration. But later, when he becomes Secretary of the Treasury, and when his many companies and their subsidiaries come up for government benefits, as is inevitable, the situation may prove embarrassing.

This is one reason why Senator Byrd of Virginia, no critic of either Eisenhower or big business, wants to question Ike's cabinet officers regarding their enterprises and get a record of their investments.

SECOND ANDY MELLON?

No one quite like Humphrey has sat in the cabinet since the days of Andrew W. Mellon. Born in Michigan 63 years ago, Humphrey began life as a small town Michigan lawyer, came to Cleveland where he joined the M. A. Hanna Company, founded by the famous—sometimes infamous Ohio political boss who was the power behind President McKinley. At that time the Hanna Company was primarily engaged in hauling ore down from the Mesabi Range in Great Lakes ore boats and delivering it to the steel companies of Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Humphrey, however, saw no reason why his company should not process the ore as well as deliver it; so, just before the depression, he put together the National Steel Company. Nevertheless, National Steel not only weathered the storm better than any other steel company, but was generally admitted to have been ablest managed.

About this time it became apparent that George Humphrey had an extraordinary gift for judgment. In fact, some of his competitors claimed it was a gift of prophecy.

During the depression, for instance, the most profitable part of the average steel company was the tin-plate division. And National Steel, of all the steel companies, had the greatest percentage of tin-plate capacity. Humphrey had built the company with the tin-plate shortage in mind.

The steel industry also woke up to find that their biggest customer was the Detroit automobile industry. But they also woke up to find that Humphrey was ahead of them. He had set up his Great Lakes Steel Corporation right in Detroit for that purpose.

This is just part of the remarkable career of the new Secretary of the Treasury. More about him, including some of his handiworks and some predictions on fiscal policies, follows tomorrow.

World's Rare Jewels Will Glow In Queen Of England's Crown

By ROSETTE HARGROVE

LONDON —(NEA)—The 7600 privileged guests who will attend the coronation ceremony at Westminster Abbey next June will have the opportunity of seeing the largest cut diamond in the world, the "Cullinan."

When first discovered in South Africa in 1905 it weighed 3035 carats (roughly 24 ounces) and was about the size of a man's clenched fist. The diamond was bought by the Transvaal Government and presented to King Edward VII on his birthday.

It was then cut into four large brilliant, the largest of which is the "Great Star of Africa," weighing 516½ carats and now set in the head of the Royal Sceptre which is held in the Queen's right hand at the coronation. Two hinged diamond clasps hold it in place, which allow the diamond to be removed when required by the Queen for wearing as a pendant on great state occasions.

The second portion known as the "Second Star of Africa" is square-shaped and set in the center of the headband of the Imperial Crown of State which contains 2783 diamonds as well as many other precious stones. It is more than likely that Elizabeth II will wear this lovely crown when she returns to Buckingham Palace after the coronation ceremony.

The Coronation Crown with which the monarch is actually crowned is called the St. Edward's Crown. It is of gold set with diamonds, rubies, sapphires, emeralds and pearls. Above the band are alternating crosses and fleur-de-lis, and over these stretch the two complete arches symbolizing the hereditary independence of the monarchy. These arches curve downward in the center, symbolizing royalty. Large drop pearls, said to have been worn as earrings by Elizabeth I, hang from the crossbar of the gold and gem-studded cross surmounting the orb on top of the crown.

The crown itself is extremely heavy, weighing 4½ pounds, and for this reason in the coronation ceremony it rests on the head of the sovereign for but a few minutes before being exchanged for the lighter—1½ pounds—Imperial Crown of State.

Next in importance as emblems of sovereignty are the orb and the sceptres.

The Royal Sceptre is about three feet long, is made of gold richly studded with gems. It is surmounted by an orb cut from a large amethyst, girdled with diamonds and rubies and a magnificent diamond cross in the center of which is set a fine emerald. Beneath the orb and cross is the enormous, pear-shaped and flawless "Great Star of Africa."

The orb surmounted by a cross symbolizes the domination of the Christian faith over the world. It is never placed in the hands of a consort, but only of a reigning King or Queen.

The King's Orb is of pure gold, richly girdled with a pearl bordered fillet, inside which are large rubies, sapphires and emeralds surrounded by diamonds. The surmounting cross is separated from the orb by a large amethyst. The cross is heavily jeweled, a fine sapphire occupying the center front with an emerald at the back. The arms of the cross are studded with diamonds and pearls.

The jeweled State Sword, the one of the five swords of state which are included in the crown jewels, has a scabbard thickly set with gems, diamonds, rubies and emeralds being used to depict the Rose of England, the Thistle of Scotland and the Shamrock of Ireland.

The sword is placed on the altar by the monarch in homage to the church. The Archbishop of Canterbury receives it and the sovereign redeems it on payment of 100 newly-minted shillings, which are afterwards distributed among various church officials.

Apart from the traditional regalia, the Queen may wear whatever pieces of her own jewelry she chooses at her coronation. Beneath her robes she will wear full evening dress and can select any pieces she feels appropriate—probably a magnificent necklace, earrings and bracelet.

Like any other woman, Elizabeth II values her jewelry not only for its intrinsic worth but also for its history in relation to herself.

One of her favorite tiaras, which she wears very frequently, is the one Queen Mary gave her for a wedding present.

She is also very fond of the sapphire and diamond necklace—a wedding present from the late King—which she wore for a recent photograph, as well as a diamond bracelet which was a wedding present from the Duke of Edinburgh.

In some pictures of the Queen, specially taken for use on coronation souvenirs, she is shown wearing a diamond tiara, a wedding present from the Nizam of Hyderabad—a magnificent floral design which can be detached to form several smaller pieces of jewelry.

Tiaras, crowns and coronets are already appearing in the windows of jewelers and in the costume jewelry department of London's stores. They will be the favorite headdress for next year's brides and will also be worn by the guests at the brilliant state balls and banquets.

At the coronation ceremony, all the peeresses must wear a tiara. They carry their coronets in their hands and only wear them at the moment when the Queen herself is crowned and the silver trumpets sound.

1953 will be a great jewel year in England.

This show trial (Red purge in Czechoslovakia) in which Stalinist communism devours its own children and some of its most faithful votaries has been repeated time and again to sound a macabre warning to those Communist leaders who survive.—Dean Acheson, Secretary of State.

Fort Collins, Colo.—"Where did the slang term 'highbrow' come from?"—M. P. Answer.—During the lives of our grandparents there was a popular notion that a person with a high forehead was the possessor of a superior brain, and that one whose hairline was low or who had a receding forehead did not have much in the way of brains. The first type was said to be "high-browed"; the other "low-browed." The notion was foolish, of course, but from it "highbrow" came to be a slang term for a person of actual or assumed superior intellect, and "lowbrow" for one alleged to be of low intellect.

Good Evening...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

MICHIGAN—Charles Burton of Gladstone talked to the Escanaba Rotary Club Monday noon at the Delta Hotel on the subject "Michigan Our Michigan." When he had finished, Nevin Reynolds, Rotary Club president, said:

"The applause expresses the pleasure of our members. I want to take this opportunity to tell you how much good you are doing in selling Michigan wherever you go."

Hearing Charles Burton you couldn't help but feel better informed about your own state, to realize that Northern Michigan still has a bright future, that this is a wonderful state and a rich Upper Peninsula region.

The remainder of this column will present information—some well known, some of it unfamiliar to many people—given by Burton in his talk.

BIRTH AND GROWTH—Michigan's first permanent settlement was at Sault Ste. Marie in 1688, the second at St. Ignace in 1671.

The so-called "Ohio War" of 1835 resulted in Ohio receiving 400 square miles of disputed land at the southern border of the state. Michigan got 9,000 square miles of land now comprising the Upper Peninsula and a portion of northern Wisconsin.

The only real loser was Wisconsin, which wasn't a party to the dispute!

Henry Clay, distinguished statesman, opposing an appropriation for construction of the first locks at the Soo, told congress that Northern Michigan was "a boundless waste with rugged landscapes and frozen morasses."

THE BIG STATE—Today the Soo Locks handle annual tonnage seven times greater than that of the Panama Canal.

Michigan's land area is 58,216 square miles, the longest shoreline of any state in the Union; it has 11,037 inland lakes, 36,000 miles of rivers and streams.

It leads all states in the production of gypsum, magnesium compounds and salt. In fact, there is enough salt in Michigan to supply the whole world for 1,000 years.

More than 1,000,000 hunting and 1,000,000 fishing licenses are sold in Michigan—more than any other state in the nation. Deer are found in every county in the state, including Wayne.

THE NORTHERN REGION—Michigan attracts an estimated 10 million tourists who spent about $600 million in 1951.

The Upper Peninsula is almost 400 miles from end to end and is larger than Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Delaware combined.

The region's Copper Country produced 72 million pounds of copper in 1951, placing the state sixth in the U. S. Vast deposits of copper remain untouched. As much copper still lies in the ground as has been produced in the past century, according to estimates.

Michigan's iron mines have turned out 700 million tons of iron ore in the past 100 years. Life of the iron deposits in the U. P. is estimated at from 100 to 200 years more.

DON'T SELL IT SHORT—Burton pointed out that a new era in production of iron and copper from low grade ores is now beginning in the Upper Peninsula. The real value of Michigan's forests, through reforestation, has yet to be realized.

Considering all of this, Burton pointed to the necessity for and the growing hope of accomplishing the bridging of the Straits of Mackinac, uniting the state.

"Let nobody sell the Upper Peninsula's basic industries short," he declared. And we might add: Don't discount the progress that enthusiasm, as typified by Burton, can bring to the Upper Peninsula.

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

Fleetwood, N. Y.—"Often on the radio I hear 'luxury' pronounced as if spelled 'lughshury.' Cannot anything be done to stop this atrocious practice?"—Mrs. W. S. A.

Answer.—I'm afraid not. Although no American dictionary recognized any other than "Luk-shu-ri" until about 25 years ago, about half of our English cousins were even then saying "LUG-zhu-ri," and many of our own countrymen were doing the same. Today, most of them are so pronouncing it, with "lug-ZHOO-ri-ATE" and "lug-ZHOO-ri-us" for "luxuriate" and "luxurious."

Fort Collins, Colo.—"Where did the slang term 'highbrow' come from?"—M. P. Answer.—During the lives of our grandparents there was a popular notion that a person with a high forehead was the possessor of a superior brain, and that one whose hairline was low or who had a receding forehead did not have much in the way of brains. The first type was said to be "high-browed"; the other "low-browed." The notion was foolish, of course, but from it "highbrow" came to be a slang term for a person of actual or assumed superior intellect, and "lowbrow" for one alleged to be of low intellect.

The war debt a lot of male Americans are in favor of abolishing is alimony.

Most Bills Call For More Money

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN

WASHINGTON — Economy in government the Congressmen want. They've been in business less than a week and already they've written more than 1,000 bills, mostly calling for the spending of more money on a wide assortment of laudable enterprises.

The mere printing of all these documents (and several thousand more to come) will cost us taxpayers a small fortune; about the only consolation we've got, I guess, is that most of these would-be laws never will get past the waste paper department.

This day I have spent squinting at the fine print and the only bill I could find in the pile that might conceivably cut the cost of running this nation was H. R. 216 by Rep. James C. Auchincloss, the Republican from Rumson, N. J. It would farm out the District of Columbia's dog pound to private, nonprofit enterprise and thereby save the taxpayers the cost of capturing local stray pooches.

There were a few other bills an economist like me can approve in a negative kind of way; they won't cost anything. Such a one was the scheme of Senators J. Allen Frear Jr. (Dem.) and John J. Williams (Rep.) both of Delaware, to turn Thanksgiving week into National Homemakers Week. This, said Sen. F., would do honor to America's housewives and if it takes a law to do that, I'm in favor of it, though I've been honoring one particular housewife now for some little time without encouragement from Congress.

Phony Medal Crime

Rep. Dean P. Taylor (R., N. Y.) would make the speed limit, as well as the left-turn signal, the same all over the nation, and that's not a bad idea, either. Rep. Peter W. Roding Jr. (D., N. J.) wants to give 300,000 visas to German, Italian, Greek and Dutch refugees. Rep. Kenneth B. Keating (R., N. Y.) would make five percenters sign an official register so officials could know with whom it was doing business.

The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in every even-numbered year would be a legal holiday to be called National Election Day, if Rep. Paul Cunningham (R., Iowa) had his way. Rep. Bernard Kearney (R., N. Y.) would make a crime of the wearing of phony medals, or the phony wearing of real ones.

Rep. George A. Dondero (R., Mich.) would prohibit the census taker from asking any citizen how much money he earns.

And these, fellow taxpayers, are about all the bills so far introduced that won't affect our pocketbooks. The ones that'll cost us are legion; here are a few:

Retirement Pay

Rep. Charles R. Howell (D., N. J.) wants to build the local music lovers a grand opry house. Rep. Thomas J. Lane, (D., Mass.) thinks the government should buy up worsted goods, the same way it buys eggs. This would keep the woolen mills as busy as the egg hatcheries.

Salaries of Supreme Court judges should be raised from $25,500 to $35,000, believes Rep. Emanuel Celler (D., N. Y.). Rep. Cunningham, who obviously considers his cohort a cheapskate, has another bill to boost the wages of the nine old men to $40,000.

Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. (D., N. Y.) figures that all ex-presidents and veeps should be retained on the payroll as senators-at-large. He'd let 'em argue on the floor, but he wouldn't allow them to vote. For this he'd give them $25,000 each a year.

A number of the gentlemen want to reduce a wide assortment of taxes on such items as movie tickets, cheap cigarettes, ladies' handbags, suitcases and mere breadwinners, and finally there's the bill of Rep. Samuel K. McConnell (R., Pa.). He wants to give free airplane tickets, or at least cut-rate ones, to preachers.

New $3,726,800 Clinic Speeds Up Service At University Hospital

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR — University of Michigan Hospital opened the doors of its new $3,726,800 outpatient clinic to the public this week.

But more important, it opened a whole new system to replace the delay-ridden and irritating procedure so familiar to patients who have flocked to the cramped quarters of the main hospital building over the years.

It's a new home for the 24 clinics formerly crammed into the various departments of the old building. And it's a modern well-organized home to delight the 700-1,000 patients a day that it can handle.

Registration Rapid

Here the patient who does not need to be admitted to the hospital, will be treated quickly, personally and efficiently in an atmosphere of subdued elegance typified by the aluminum and glass-enclosed lobby, dotted with modern furniture.

Outmoded and lengthy registration procedures, long the object of patient criticism, have been junked. Instead, the patient will first contact the lobby receptionist and be directed to an adjacent registration area. Basic record data will be quickly obtained and the patient sent to the appropriate clinic.

Record processing will be handled in a special basement unit and arrive at the clinic as, or before, the patient arrives. This is in great contrast to the old method where the patient waited some considerable time for the processing of records before actually getting to the right clinic.

Should the doctor desire additional consultation from other departments, he can call a "roving" consultant from the proper clinic and a complete on-the-spot consultation can be held. The patient formerly had to switch to the other department.

Over 100 Offices

The whole system will be a boon to the patient.

The new outpatient clinic is attached to University Hospital by a special bridge connecting the lower three levels of the seven-floor building. This is expected to enable the staff to handle three times the present level of 250,000 outpatients visits a year.

The modern brick and masonry building houses 24 clinics, 196 examining areas and more than 100 offices for physicians, nurses and secretaries.

Nine classrooms with facilities for film projection, demonstration and visual aid instruction are distributed among the floors.

The new unit houses everything from an emergency ward, children's clinic and surgery to a pharmacy, heredit clinic and hotel-type overnight facilities for ambulatory patients.

Justice Douglas Says U. S. Should Back Up Land Reform In Iran

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States should back to the limit any workable land reform in Iran, says Justice William O. Douglas.

The Supreme Court jurist told CBS television interviewers this was in line with his policy of technical support for any strong anti-Communist nationalist movement in the Middle East.

Iran was "just ripe for Communist exploitation" when its land was vested in a few, he said, but Premier Mossadegh has defeated the Communists politically and should have full U. S. aid.

To solve the Iranian oil situation, Douglas recommended: a World Bank loan to pay off British investments there, followed by U. S. technical help — without interference in Iran's politics—to resume oil production.

Housewife Needs More Dignified Name, Says Garry

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

WANTED: a new name for "housewife."

Garry Moore, whose afternoon TV program draws thousands of fan letters from the ladies who stay home and take care of the chores, says it's high time someone thought up a more dignified name for these jills-of-all-trades. He explains:

"When a woman has to reply 'occupation housewife' to a census taker or pollster, I think she always feels the term is somewhat derogatory. Women are inclined to assume a sort of apologetic air when they say, 'I'm only a housewife'."

Accomplished Artisan

"The fact is, they should be proud of it. That's the object of all the love stories and romantic movies—to turn a bachelor girl into a housewife. Yet after they achieve their goal, they resent being relegated to the humdrum category of 'housewife.' Something should be done about it."

Garry is thinking about running a contest on his show, to dig up a new term. He points out that housewife is one of the most accomplished artisans in our society. If she does her job well she must be a skilled cook, a nurse, an engineer, an efficiency expert, a party-giver, a psychologist, a community leader, a liaison officer between family, school and church, a glamor girl to her husband and a mother to her children.

Chairman of Board?

"Some such term as 'chairman of the board' or 'general manager' would come closer," says Moore, "but it has to be more descriptive than that. The old term 'lady of the house' has been overworked by brush salesmen, 'mom' definitely won't do."

We might adopt a big business term and call the housewife "assistant to the president," the way they do in corporations with a valuable man who has no special title but dips into all departments.

We might try out "home manager" or "doctor of the humanities" or "specialist in living." All these are too cumbersome, however, and it's doubtful if any woman would work up nerve to write down such an occupation on the census blank.

AS WE LIVE

Your Daughter's Place Is At Home With You

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

A child's place is at home with parents and brothers and sisters, no matter how small and crowded the home may be. The mother who wrote the following letter seems to overlook this fact:

(Q) "I have a daughter who will be 18 in two months. For the last 10 years, she has been living with my cousin. Four weeks ago, she moved home. I want her to move back because she has more conveniences there. Her father says she doesn't have to go back but he is not a good provider. I have seven other children besides her and it's a tough job for me. She wants to be grown up and do as she wishes. What should I do in a case like this?"

(A) Have your daughter remain at home. That is where she belongs. It is only right for her to live with her own family instead of with a distant relative.

At 18 a girl is nearly grown. She should be a great help to you with the home and with the other children. If she is so anxious to be grown up, she should accept some of the duties and responsibilities that go with an adult status.

Most 18-year-olds think they can do as they please. They must learn that no one can do as he pleases in life, at any age or in any place. If your daughter remains at home, make it clear that there are certain rules which she must obey. Be sure, however, that these are reasonable and suited to her age. She is no longer a child and you should not treat her as if she were a child.

At her age, she is quite capable of earning enough to support herself in after-school and weekend

Dear Lois,

I've told just everyone I know about the big Sale you said is going to start Wednesday. I just can't wait to find out who it is.

I'll be ready to go just as soon as the kids get home from school.

Do you think this place would be open evenings, too?

Bye now,

jobs. Your husband has his hands full supporting the younger children and you. If your daughter is no longer in school, she should be able to contribute something to the support of the home as well as taking care of her own needs.

When a girl reaches the age of marriage, as your daughter is now doing, she should be in her home with her parents. Young men would wonder why she was living with a relative instead of with her parents. Furthermore, her parents are better able to direct her and help her in making a wise selection than a distant relative could. She needs you now more than she needs the conveniences your cousin can supply.

Dr. Hurlock will help you with family problems. Write her in care of this newspaper.

Ominous Muttering Still Being Heard In Jackson Prison

By JAMES A. O. CROWE
JACKSON (AP)—A combination of a new "get tough" policy and cold weather is currently holding Southern Michigan Prison under control.

But there are ominous mutterings among some of the prisoners of trouble in the spring.

I was last inside the nation's largest prison to cover the roaring, burning turmoil and the fifth of last April's week-long riot.

Returning for an unannounced tour the other day, I found the giant institution strangely quiet, clean and controlled.

Could Blow Any Time

No one will say positively that a new riot could not break out any time.

In fact Warden William H. Bannion, who was appointed last summer to get the prison back under firm control, says frankly, "she could blow tomorrow."

He says, however, he and the other top personnel feel they have a better hold of the situation than ever through an increasing guard force, a new chain of command so everyone knows where his orders are coming from, and a new "flying squadron" system of distributing arms to guards in an emergency.

Most of the prison staff and many of the prisoners feel that now there is a better chance of catching any spark before it becomes a conflagration.

No Guns In Sight

I wandered in and out of buildings and criss-crossed the yard. Hundreds of prisoners passed me, some ignoring me and some quietly saying hello.

Where I couldn't have set foot during the riot without prisoners shouting obscenities from behind their bars, I was virtually ignored.

Where police and guards once scowled behind their guns, there was not a firearm in sight.

The cellblocks, dining hall, kitchen and yard, which were a welter of broken windows, water from broken pipes, bonfires and incredible litter, were clean, repaired and repainted. The thousands of broken windows have all been replaced.

But scars are still plainly visible.

Scattered Ruins Remain

The old laundry and commissary buildings stand deserted in the yard-burned out shells that will eventually be pulled down.

The auditorium, though back in use for the showing of movies, still smells of charring wood, and the inside walls are still blackened.

Little restoration work has yet been done on the gymnasium which is still badly charred inside.

The library as such never has been replaced.

I talked at random with as many of the prisoners as I could. No one attempted to select them for me and I was allowed to talk to them alone.

The census seemed to be that there was little immediate chance of a riot.

Look To Legislature

While the cold weather holds, most seemed to agree, there will be little disturbance.

"But come nice weather," an inmate said, "the boys may get restless."

Another factor which will make spring the danger period is the Legislature.

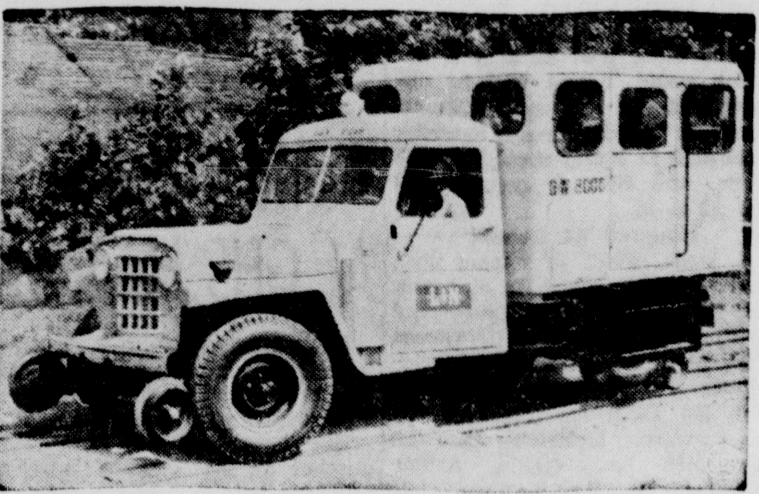

The prisoners have their attention glued to the Legislature session which starts Wednesday.

Several men told me point blank there will be an uprising if the lawmakers fail to correct what the convicts claim are inequities in the criminal code and the good behavior time allowances.

They may be bluffing—and then again, they may not.

TEA FOR RUSSIANS

MOSCOW (AP)—Twenty-six new tea factories are being built in the Georgian Republic of the U. S. S. R. An announcement says they are designed to process 78,000 tons of leaf per year and are being built in the tea growing regions.

JEOP RAILROAD—Don't be surprised if you see a jeep zipping along a railroad track. Photo shows new special-duty version that 30 railroads have ordered to replace the traditional handcar used to transport section gangs and inspection men along the line. New railroad jeep is versatile, with special extra wheels that permit it to leave the tracks at any location, go in and out of terminals at will, make inspection trips without interrupting workers or train schedules along the line.

Soo Hill

SOO HILL—The Soo Hill PTA will meet at its usual time Wednesday evening at the school. Miss Anita Kotila, RN, of the Delta County Health Department will provide a public health film, "Family Teamwork."

Grand Jury Oil Inquiry Canceled

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Post said today the Truman administration has taken steps to drop a grand jury probe of the U. S. international oil industry and substitute for it a civil suit.

The Post said it had learned on high authority that the National Security Council, which is headed by the President, had recommended that the Justice Department call off the grand jury investigation, now in its preliminary stages.

"At the same time," the newspaper continued, "a key government official said he was informed that President Truman has adopted the recommendation and will direct the attorney general to dismiss the criminal proceeding and substitute a civil injunction suit."

The newspaper said such a suit would ask for a court order directing the oil companies to comply strictly with the antitrust laws.

The White House, the Justice Department and the National Security Council declined to comment on the Post's report.

New Club Is Place To Find Republicans

By ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON (AP)—Trying to find some Republican in Washington? Well, if he isn't in his usual haunts, you might try a remodeled 150-year-old brick building across the street from the old House of office building.

Here, opening its doors today, is located an organization new to the Washington scene—the Capitol Hill Club. Who belongs to it? Rep. James C. Auchincloss of New Jersey, the club's first president, gives these qualifications for membership:

"You must be a gentleman or a lady, you must be a Republican, and you've got to have 50 bucks."

Minister Disturbed

The Rev. Dr. Albert P. Shirkey of the Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Church yesterday termed the club "a sin, a shame and a blight on the country."

"If ever I have been disheartened," he said in a sermon, "it was when I learned that within a stone's throw of the Capitol, there is going to be opened up, by the new leaders of government, a liquor lounge where they may go for cocktails and then into separate rooms for conferences...."

"To have the leadership of this country work out their plans in a liquor lounge is going to be a terrible thing for the country."

Auchincloss and some friends thought up the Club several years ago—soon after the Republicans lost their fifth straight presidential election. They thought there ought to be a place for party stalwarts to nurse their wounds and rally their spirits for the 1952 campaign.

Bar For Men Only

A series of difficulties—finding a suitable headquarters was the principal one—delayed matters until there was no longer a need for a Republican waiting wall. One of the club's first functions, in fact, will be an open house for Washington visitors—Republican ones—during next week's inauguration festivities.

More than 400 persons, including some of the biggest names in the party, already are members of the Capitol Hill Club.

Their three-story club house offers them, among other things, three sedately decorated dining rooms, a lounge and a small men-only bar. For women, there is a small special dining room. Bells summon members of Congress if there is a quorum call or other business requiring their presence.

All this cost some $150,000, and the end is not yet. Warmed by their election victory, the Republicans are talking of an adjacent seven-story building, to cost more than a million dollars, which would house their National Committee and affiliated bodies.

Life Membership $1,000

Initiation fee for the Capitol Hill club is $25. Dues are $25 a year if you live hereabouts, $50 a year for non-residents. You can buy a life membership for $1,000.

Who decides whether you meet the qualifications for joining? An admissions committee headed by Rep. C. W. (Runt) Bishop of Illinois. A onetime tailor, who has been a coal miner and a baseball player, Bishop is not likely to demand that applicants be listed in the social register. But they'd better be able to prove they're Republicans.

Juarez Gay, But With Sadness Background

By STEVE LOWELL

JUAREZ, Mexico (AP)—Gay carnival town—against a background of sadness.

Bright lights and music blur the grimier parts by night for the visitor to this border city of 130,000 just across the Rio Grande from the Texas city of El Paso.

The tourist who was so busy stepping from one night spot to another usually must make another visit before he notices the background.

Often it takes a daylight tour, when bright sunlight erases shadows that draped rough corners. Then you see the children — and the old people.

Hunger Under Dirt
You've turned down dozens of small boys who want to shine your shoes. But this one has a hungry look under the dirt.

He goes to work as you sip a beer. He eyes you as you munch a crisp tostada. You hand him one, and he gulps it.

You pay him much more than the shine is worth. That turns out to be a mistake. With a grin and a "gracias, señor," he scampers off to tell his friends. It takes quite a while to shake off the swarm of small boys who want to hold doors for you, guide you around town, carry your bundles.

An old woman, a dingy black mantilla draped over her head, huddles on the step of a hovel facing right on the sidewalk. As you step to one side there's a light tug on your sleeve. A tiny girl—she must be no more than 2—holds out a grimy hand begging.

You fish in your pocket for a coin and give it to her. You hear the old woman call to her.

Some of the shopkeepers implore you in heavily accented English to "enter my shop." As you pass, it all imagination that makes you think you can see hope die in their eyes?

Skilled In Handwork
You hear a man's voice, "Senor—for the lady." A cripple holds out a corsage of gardenia buds. How can you bargain this time?

You enter a shop—just to look, you explain. With real courtesy the shopkeeper shows you graceful silver tea sets, handsome leather luggage and boots, beautiful pottery and glassware—all handmade by skillful artisans. All for nothing, compared to what you'd have to pay at home.

But you hadn't planned to buy. You have to leave. It's dark and you have a long drive home. You'd like to buy something from this person who has been so gracious, but you just thank him. He smiles and nods, but his eyes aren't happy.

The nighttime charm is returning as you walk the short distance back to the border. But now you

World Traveler At GHS Monday

Leo Lania, lecturer, author, playwright and roving correspondent, will speak at the Gladstone high school gymnasium Monday.

His appearance here is another number on the current lyceum program.

Lania is declared to be "a speaker as exciting as the life he has led."

Edgar A. Mowrer, news analyst, states: "Lania was from the beginning one of the few to see and denounce the danger of Hitler."

Among the bland, the myopic, the wearers of pink spectacles, the wrong-headed, he was clear eyed. Without his vision, his courage, and, if you will, his unflinching loyalty, he would not now be alive and in America, ready to continue the age-old struggle against brutality and darkness and oppression."

Dorothy Thompson, noted newspaper columnist, says: "I have known Leo Lania for many years. He is one of the best journalists I have ever met. He saw everything, he knows everybody and he is invariably right."

Timber Doodle Dies On Plane

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Ruby, a woodcock refugee from the frigid North whose southbound flight was aided by airplane and sympathetic handlers, died yesterday while en route to its winter home in Louisiana.

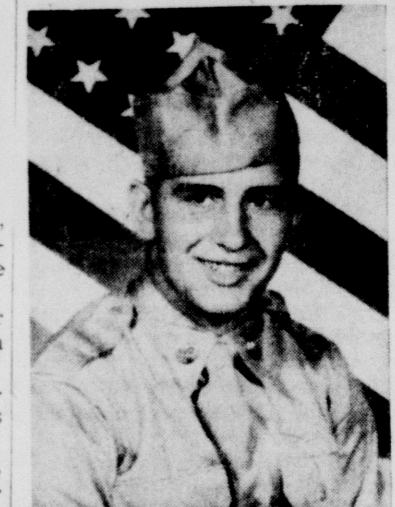

A combination of aerial flight, automobile riding and hamburger failed to perk up the wayward woodcock.

The long-beaked timber doodle was a special passenger aboard an American Airlines plane which whisked it from Syracuse, N. Y., after it fell to earth, half frozen and starved.

Ruby postponed its annual flight long after its outfit had swooped southward for a diet of Louisiana worms and Southern sunshine. When Ruby did start, the wintry weather grounded its flight at a Syracuse service station.

A university professor and bird authority arranged the flight to Nashville. Mrs. Fred Laskey, a local bird lover, who was going to care for Ruby until it was able to continue migrating under its own power, said the bird would be stuffed and mounted in her bird room.

Generals Who Became President

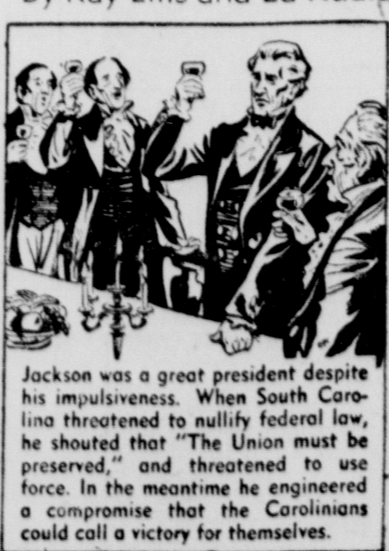

Andrew Jackson earned his military spurs early, having fought in the Revolution at 14. At New Orleans in the War of 1812 he smashed the British regulars, adding glory to a conflict marked by some humiliation.

The "common man" was tired of the Virginia dynasty's rule and "Old Hickory" was elected in 1800. The people turned out en masse for his inauguration. They believed he could do no wrong, and that he would protect their interests against the crooked politician.

The people's hero ruled with an iron hand. He appointed a cabinet which he rarely consulted. Instead he was guided by his "Kitchen Cabinet" which did his publicity and started the spoils system.

Jackson was a great president despite his impulsiveness. When South Carolina threatened to nullify federal law, he shouted that "The Union must be preserved," and threatened to use force. In the meantime he engineered a compromise that the Carolinians could call a victory for themselves.

NEW SEATS—Workers are finishing two sections of the new permanent seats at the fairgrounds indoor rink which will be ready for fans when the Escanaba Hawks entertain the Calumet Radars Wednesday night in a Northern Michigan Hockey League game. When the project is completed the new seats will line the entire east side of the rink and will greatly increase the seating capacity. The picture above shows the steep angle of the seats which will afford fans a perfect view of action on the ice. (Daily Press Photo)

Revised Eskey Starting Lineup For Stephenson

A revised Escanaba Eskymo starting lineup may take the floor against the Stephenson Eagles here tonight at 8:15 as Coach Burt Gustafson's Eskys seek to climb over the .500 mark.

Gustafson said this morning that Paul Davidson, senior forward, will likely get his first starting assignment of the season. Davidson would team up with John Peterson at the forward posts with Fred Boddy and Pat McDonough at guards and Dick Peterson in the slot.

Davidson, all-U. P. grid star for the Eskymos the past football season, has seen little action in games to date. All the others have been in starting roles in previous games.

The lineup shuffle was caused by a bad cold by Bill McGovern which may keep the redhead out of action.

The Eskymos are fresh from a 57-55 last second victory over Gladstone which enabled them to climb to the .500 percentage mark. The Eskys have split in six starts.

Stephenson brings a 2-4 record to Escanaba tonight. Coach Walter Schousen's Eagles will be playing their first post-holiday game.

Stephenson starters will be Tom Kakuk, a sophomore, and Bob Melchior at forwards, Stan Luczkowski and Jerry Martin at guards with Bud Landerth getting the nod at the pivot spot.

A preliminary between the junior varsity teams will open hostilities at 7.

Game officials will be Norman Slough of Rapid River and Stan Sosnowski of Marquette.

Hockey Sidelights

It was a tough break being without the services of Len Webster in the 5-2 game at Portage Lake Sunday . . . Some help on the second line and a chance to get a breather that third period might have made the difference . . . With Webster and Burt Petaja in the lineup, the Hawks previously had tipped Portage Lake, 5-4, in Calumet.

The league is pretty well balanced this season . . . You can look for Calumet to be hard to beat from now on . . . The young Finnish boys on the Calumet Radar team appearing here tomorrow night are fast and tricky and they don't know the meaning of the word "fear" . . . Escanaba may be helped by the appearance of Marvin Mayra, of Hancock, and Dave Serbinski is expected to play here for the first time this season.

February 1 is the deadline for signing new talent . . . Ronnie Kyle, of Fort Frances, Ont., who is a log brier as well as a capable hockey player, may join the local team . . . Kyle has performed in the Gladstone world's championship roleo events in the past . . . Two other players are being contacted to bolster the Hawk lineup for future league games.

Hockey fans in this area will be pleased to see the two new sections tomorrow night . . . "Ideal seats . . . best improvement at the exhibition building rink in a long time" are typical comments of people who see the new seats for the first time . . . In addition to having these two new sections ready for tomorrow night, it is planned to keep the youngsters away from the sideboards by having special students' and special youngsters' sections . . . The Escanaba Lions club is in charge of ticket selling, taking and ushering and will have things well organized for the game with Calumet tomorrow night—J.G.W.

Chavez In Split Win Over Jimmy Carter
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Eddie Chavez, local lightweight, won a split decision from lightweight champion Jimmy Carter in a non-title exhibition Monday night.

Minutes later, the only official who voted for Carter dropped dead of a heart attack as he was leaving the arena. He was Richard (Billy) Burke, 46, who had refereed the preliminaries, then judged the main event.

Burke voted 56-54 for Carter. Referee Fred Apostoli, the former middleweight king, saw it 56-54 for Chavez. Judge Ray Flores had it even closer, 55½ to 54½ Chavez.

The Associated Press scored it 56-54 for Carter.

Chavez, 138, inflicted a cut over the champ's eye in the fourth round. Carter, 136, appeared better from then on.

Two Michigan State All-American gridgers—halfback Sonny Grandelius (1950) and tackle Don Coleman (1951)—have been named to the all-time Hawaiian Hula Bowl team by Hawaiian sports writers and sportscasters.

RAPID RIVER — The Harlem Aces entertained a large crowd here last night while defeating the Rapid River city quint 48-43.

The colored visitors put on a fine exhibition of basketball and were in control throughout the contest.

Cliff Mahor scored 14 points for Rapid River to share high point honors with Proctor, Kirk of the Aces.

The St. Joe 7-8th graders beat Rapid River's juniors 35-24 in the preliminary.

Sports Roundup

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—It has been said by sober minds that one of the easiest ways to make a quick departure from this world is to join a bobsled team. Probably very true.

But don't try to discourage Stan Fenham, the 40-year-old fire chief from Lake Placid, N. Y., who will captain the United States team in the world championships at Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany, at the end of the month.

Stan and his boys finished second to the Germans in the Winter Olympic Games at Oslo last year, and he still is burned up, a state distinctly unbecoming to a fireman. He's sure the United States will win this time.

"The Germans had two four-man teams," said Stan, who is biding his time here while waiting to depart for Europe, "and they broke them up to get one good team. They beat us, all right, but it took a combination of two teams."

The United States entry, composed of Stan, Pat Martin, Howard Crossett and Jim Atkinson, finished second. The three previous years, 1948-49-50, Stan led his crew to the world title.

But things are going to be different for everyone this time. There's a new rule on the book that says a four-man team can't exceed 880 pounds. Last year, the CHICAGO (AP)—"Those New York Yankees are still the team to beat, but I have high hopes for the White Sox . . .," said Paul Richards, who steered the Chicago White Sox to third place in the 1952 American League race.

"I've got hopes all right—but it's really foolish to sit here in January and tell you about what will happen in June or July."

Richards conceded to baseball writers at a press luncheon Monday that his pitching staff may be better than in 1952 when it was one of the club's strongest assets.

Fight Spartans
"We have about eight pitchers who can be starters," he said. "But

Ten Will Fight For Ring Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—The void created when middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson decided to give up the ring for a dancing career will be filled following an elimination tournament involving ten boxers.

This method was agreed upon Monday following a huddle between the New York State Athletic Commission and the National Boxing Association.

The fistie groups named the following middleweights to vie for the title abdicated by Robinson: Carl (Bobo) Olson, Honolulu, Norman Hayes, Boston; Ernie Durando, Bayonne, N. J.; Paddy Young, New York; Rocky Castellani, Luzerne, Pa.; Walter Cartier, New York; Lee Sala, Donora, Pa.; Pierre Langlois, Paris; Gey Giar-della, Philadelphia and Eugene (Silent) Hairston, New York.

The winner of the eliminations must meet the "European" champ, determined by a match between Randy Turpin of England, former champion, and Charles Humez of France.

In This Corner

With Roy Crandall

Coach Eldon "Cappy" Keil has been in the business a long time but we doubt if he has ever lost a closer decision than that 57-55 verdict to the Escanaba Eskymos the other night . . . The game appeared headed for a 55-55 tie and overtime play when Martin Becker dropped in two free throws with a few seconds remaining . . . But the Eskymos took the ball out of bounds and John Peterson let fly for a field goal, with the official's gun going off when the ball was in midair.

Keil, incidentally, is one of the oldest coaches in length of service in the Upper Peninsula . . . The affable Cappy is in his 29th consecutive year as Gladstone cage coach . . . Highlights of his tenure were U. P. championship teams in 1931 and 1950 . . . His nearing his 250th win at the Gladstone cage helm . . . C. C. Watson of Ishpeming and Pat Gleason of National Mine have been in the U. P. basketball picture longer than Keil.

Arrangements have been made for the Escanaba Golden Gloves squad to travel to Manistique Thursday night for a workout at the St. Francis de Sales gym . . . About six boxers from Escanaba and vicinity will go over for a sparring session against the Manistique boxers who dominated the championships in last year's U. P. tournament here.

Clarence "Bevo" Francis, the Rio Grande College freshman who scored 116 points in a recent basketball game, was a team mate of St. Joe's Pete Kutchers on the North squad in the all-star game at Murray, Ky., last year . . . Francis made 13 points in the high school classic and landed a third-team berth on the All-America selections made by Chuck Taylor.

Richards Has High Hopes For White Sox This Year

There is work to be done with each. Take that Bob Keegan we bought from Syracuse. He is what I call a pretty pitcher—a stylist who would rather look good than get a batter out. We have to change all that.

"That Cuban kid, Mike Fornieles, apparently has everything, according to reports. If he is as good as they say, I can't understand why the Washington Senators traded him to us (for Chuck Stobbs)."

"Lou Kretlow is the best pitcher in the league when his arm is right. Tommy Byrne, whom we got from the St. Louis Browns, is 32, but he still has some stuff to learn.

Rogovin Ready
"Saul Rogovin is big and strong and with rests of three days or so maybe he'll get over his aches and pains. Lefty Billy Pierce will mix in a slider with his stuff. Mary Grissom's sore arm and Joe Dobson's ailing leg worry us—but if x x x we can rotate regularly, they should be okay."

Richards said his prize shortstop, Chico Carrasquel, is reported to have shaved off 12 pounds and is down to his normal playing weight of about 179.

"With Chico back in shape we should find fairly good punch along with Minnie Minofo, Jim Rivera and Sam Mele in the outfield, Eddie Robinson on first, Nellie Fox on second and Rocky Kfnsch on third."

"Sherm Lollar can improve at catch—he's smart but he's got to be a better thrower. We'll give young Bob Wilson all the chance in the world to take over behind the plate."

Chairman Fritz Crisler said no final decision could be expected before Wednesday.

One observer, attending the meetings in an advisory capacity, saw the possibility of a revision of the present rule which permits a coach to make unlimited substitutions any time the clock is stopped.

Molesworth Is Colt Grid Coach
BALTIMORE (AP)—Baltimore's new team in the National Football League named Keith Molesworth head coach and Ray Richards as one of his assistants Monday.

Molesworth was backfield coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers last year, while Richards coached the line for the Los Angeles Rams.

Don Kellett of Philadelphia, will preside over the front office as president and general manager.

The old Baltimore Colts went out of business after the 1951 season after winning only one of their last 25 league games in both the NFL and the defunct All-America loop. The Dallas Texans, who will make up the nucleus of the new team, won but one of 12 games the past season.

Molesworth went into coaching after six years as a backfield star with the Chicago Bears. He tutored in the Navy backfield for seven years and later coached the Honolulu Warriors in the Pacific Coast League. Molesworth also led Richmond to championships in the American Football League in 1949 and 1950.

In 1916, Pitcher John Nabors lost 19 straight games with the Philadelphia Athletics. His record for the year was one victory, 20 losses. It was the only big league game he won in three years.

Football Rules Men Tackle Platoon Phase

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Tight-lipped members of the football rules committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, after wrestling for six hours Monday with the question of the two-platoon system, tackled it again today behind closed doors.

Chairman Fritz Crisler said no final decision could be expected before Wednesday.

One observer, attending the meetings in an advisory capacity, saw the possibility of a revision of the present rule which permits a coach to make unlimited substitutions any time the clock is stopped.

Kramer Posts Third Victory Over Sedgman
PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—Jack Kramer took just 33 minutes to dispose of Frank Sedgman, No. 1 Australian Davis cupper, 6-2, 6-1, Monday night before a turnout of 3,300. The victory gave Kramer a 3-2 edge in their pro tennis series.

Pancho Segura continued his mastery over Ken McGregor, No. 2 Aussie for the fifth time in as many tries, 6-3, 6-4.

Kramer and Segura capped off a good night by taking the doubles in straight sets, 6-1, 6-4.

They'll play in Washington Wednesday and Thursday.

Indiana And Illinois Warm Up With Wins

CHICAGO (AP)—Indiana and Illinois—heading for a personal showdown Saturday—warmed up for the battle with easy victories Monday night.

The Illinois-Indiana game will be at Bloomington, Ind.

Indiana's Hoosiers, undefeated in the Big Ten basketball campaign, ran their conference victory string to six with an 88-68 trouncing of Ohio State on the Buckeyes' home grounds.

The Illini maintained an at-the-heels runnerup pace by drubbing Northwestern 83-58 at Champaign. The victory was Illinois' fifth in six conference games.

Crucial Game
By beating Illinois, the Hoosiers would take a comfortable lead over the field in the 18-game round robin title chase. An Illinois victory would move the defending champion into a tie for first place.

In other conference games Monday night, Michigan advanced out of the cellar with a surprise 66-61 conquest of Iowa as Paul Groffsky scored 19 points and Wisconsin upset Minnesota 76-74, establishing a Big Ten free throw record in the process. The Badgers sank 40 of 47 gift shots.

Indiana had little trouble with Ohio State, although the losers' brilliant center, Paul Ebert, outshone the Hoosiers' Don Schlundt, the Big Ten's leading scorer. Ebert hit 22 points. Schlundt got 15.

Keeps Scoring Lead
The Hoosier pivotman kept his lead in conference scoring, however, with an average of 25.2. For the season, Ebert is slightly ahead. He has a 22.6 average for nine conference and nonconference games compared with Schlundt's 22.0.

Illinois likewise had an easy time of it with Northwestern's Wildcats. The Illini grabbed a 47-25 halftime lead and coasted in Johnny Kerr, Illinois' star center, played only part of the game but accounted for 18 points.

Guard Ivy Bemoras scored 19 for the winners.

Other Big Ten games Saturday are Iowa at Minnesota, Michigan State at Michigan, and Wisconsin at Northwestern.

Marquette defeated Wichita 83-80 and Drake toppled Bradley 72-62 in Midwest independent activity Monday night.

Gardner Mulloy Wins Fourth Tennis Title
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Miami's Gardner Mulloy, the nation's No. 1 player, won the Dixie Tennis championship Monday for the fourth time.

Mulloy defeated Bernard Bartzen of San Angelo, Tex. in the final, 6-2, 3-6, 6-0, 6-1.

Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, scored a 6-1, 6-3 triumph over Thelma Long, Australian women's champion, for the women's singles title.

Francis Nearing Scoring Record

RIO GRANDE, O., (AP)—At the end of this week, Clarence (Bevo) Francis, giant cycler of tiny Rio Grande College, may be the greatest collegiate point-getter since Dr. James Naismith dreamed up the game of basketball.

At the moment, the 20-year-old freshman has scored 977 points in 19 games—excluding 44 in a alumni contest and 35 against the University of Pittsburgh in a practice tilt.

The all-time record is 1,051 points in a single season, set in 1951-52 by Johnny O'Brien of Seattle.

The six-foot, nine-inch center scored 55 points Monday against Wright-Patterson Air Force Base and last Friday hit the all-time record of 116 points in a game against Ashland, Ky., won by Rio Grande, 150-

Kansas State Is No. 1 Quint In AP Cage Poll

NEW YORK (AP)—Kansas State held sway in the Associated Press basketball poll today for the third straight week, with the same cast of supporting teams, but the old order is likely to change considerably in the next week.

Kansas State strengthened its hold on the top spot, piling up 820 points in votes from sportswriters and broadcasters on a basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, etc. But the Staters will have to beat up-and-coming Kansas Saturday night to retain their lofty perch.

13 Straight Wins
Seton Hall, still in second place with 642 points — although their lead over La Salle shrank from 24 to 10 points — faces an even more immediate danger. The Setonians, who have won 15 straight, meet seventh-ranked Fordham, also undefeated, tomorrow night in a game featuring the last two major teams with perfect records. Fordham is counting on its home floor advantage to set Seton Hall and rack up its 12th straight.

Illinois, for the second straight week, failed to receive a single first-place ballot, but piled up enough supporting votes to retain fourth place.

After a thumping 83-58 victory over Northwestern last night, the Illini now face sixth-ranked Indiana in the Big Ten's game of the week Saturday at Indiana.

Others in the top 10 are Washington, fifth; North Carolina State, eighth; Oklahoma A&M, ninth, and Western Kentucky, 10th.

The leaders (first-place votes in parentheses):

1. Kansas State (30)	820
2. Seton Hall (20)	642
3. La Salle (15)	632
4. Illinois	544
5. Washington (11)	443
6. Indiana (6)	425
7. Fordham (1)	283
8. North Carolina State (5)	282
9. Oklahoma A&M (1)	235
10. Western Kentucky (3)	177
The second 10:

14. Louisiana State (2)	81

This May Be Final Season For Jackie

NEW YORK (AP)—This may be the last year for Jackie Robinson, highest salaried player in Brooklyn history and the Dodgers' greatest drawing card.

Although he said, "I hope to have another year with this one," the brilliant second baseman indicated during a press conference yesterday that he might call it quits after the 1953 season. The conference was staged by the Dodgers to announce the signing of Brooklyn's "Big Three" that included Robinson, Peeewe Reese and Roy Campanella.

"I'm certain I have one more good year left," Robinson said after affixing his signature to a contract calling for an estimated

$38,000. "I hope to have another year."

Dodger Vice President E. J. (Buzzie) Bavaas declined to divulge the figures but admitted Robinson was the highest paid player on the club and that the total salaries of the trio was just under $100,000. It was estimated that Reese would draw $35,000 and Campanella $25,000.

Robinson, who is spending a busy winter running his own department store in Harlem, heading a housing project and serving as an executive in NBC, said he had no designs to stay in baseball once he was through as a player.

"I have a goal," he said. "I want to build a boys' club in Harlem. That will take a lot of money. I'm trying to do this through my store. If the store is successful, then my future is secure."

Asked whether he would accept a baseball job as a manager, Robbie replied:

No More Minors
"I'd have to consider it. Of course, it would have to be in the big leagues. No more minor leagues for me. I might go back to Montreal for one year in appreciation for the wonderful treatment the Montreal people gave me during the one season I was there."

Getting back to his future as an active player, Robbie said he was hopeful of playing in '54 but the possibility was still there that he might have to hang up his spikes at the end of this season.

It all depends on my physical condition during the coming season," he said. "One thing I know. If I feel that I can't play regularly, and at my top form, I'll definitely quit. No bench warming job for me."

"We had to win it last month on the road when the other clubs always had the last times at bat."

"It was a very hard race all through the year. Our team lost a number of players and had to use a bunch with just a few years experience. They gained strength as the season went on. Then we had to beat a tremendous Brooklyn team."

Roy Campanella and Carl Furillo of the Dodgers both hit two grand-slam home runs during the 1952 season.

Wolverines Break Losing Skein With Win Over Iowa

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan today was celebrating its first basketball victory in the last five games, its second in Big Ten competition and its fourth in 11 games this season.

The Wolverines, who hit many a dry spell in losing six league games this year, greeted the half-way mark on their 22-game schedule with a 66-61 victory over Iowa last night.

Late Decision
The Hawkeyes, 85-77 winners over Michigan earlier this season, were right in the thick of things until the final five minutes when the Wolverines outscored them 12-2.

Michigan led at the half 38-37 but many fans were ready to give up the cause when the Wolverines turned cold and made only seven points in the third quarter on two of 23 shots from the floor and three free throws. But Michigan caught fire in the final period. The winners were trailing 59-54 when guard Don Eaddy hit two baskets and two free throws to lead the rally.

Groffsky Gets 19
Sophomore center Paul Groffsky was high for the night with 19 points. McKinley Davis and Chuck Jarnagin each contributed 15 points to the Iowa cause in the Hawks fourth loss in six Big Ten games.

The Wolverines lost forward Milt Mead in the third period and Ralph Kaufman in the fourth on fouls, but Eaddy and guard Ray Pavichevich came through with timely points.

Michigan stays on the home floor Saturday for an invasion by Michigan State, which has won three of five conference games this season.

Strong Boxing Squad Training

Although Francis Selling, 147-pound open division fighter, is no longer a member of the Manistique boxing team, the local organization will have a strong contingent at the district Golden Gloves tournament in Escanaba Feb. 2 and 3, it announced by the Rev. George Pernaski, director.

Selling, a fast, aggressive fighter, left recently to procure employment in Detroit, the director said. Replacing him, however, is Wayne Tufnell, 135-pound open fighter, who was out of early training sessions because of a hand injury. It was feared for a time that Tufnell would be unable to enter the Golden Gloves event but his hand is in good condition again and he is expected to be a strong factor in the Manistique fighting group.

Other experienced fighters in the Manistique group are Harvard Lancour, 135 open division, a tigerish boxer who with Tufnell was one of the Golden Gloves winners in Milwaukee last year; Darryl Bertrand, 147 pound novice, experienced in the Escanaba Golden Gloves fighting, and Dick Belanger, 126 open novice, who was an Escanaba winner last year.

Four new boxers from Cooks who looked good in workouts are probably also lost to the team. The Rev. Pernaski said. One or two of them have secured jobs out of the area and the others have since failed to report for practice because they lacked transportation. An effort is being made, the director said, to provide rides for them to Manistique on training nights.

Ten men now comprise the local boxing group, including Don Aldrich, 160 pounds; Werner Ammann, 112 pounds; Buddy Holmberg, 118 pounds; James Gould, 126 pounds; Conrad Letson, 147 pounds, and Carl Brockman, 135 pounds. Brockman, a newcomer, has looked good in recent workouts.

Holmberg and Gould have had boxing experience locally but have never participated in Golden Gloves fighting.

Training sessions under the direction of Edward Toyra are being held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, but the training quarters at St. Francis de Sales school are open to boxers every night.

New equipment added to the quarters includes showers, a new heavy bag, a new swivel bag and new gloves.

Doctors Accused Of Killing Reds

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet press and radio announced today the arrest of nine doctors—most of them Jews—on charges of killing two top Russian leaders and plotting the deaths of others on instructions from British and American intelligence services and Zionist organizations.

The announcement said the doctors admitted killing Andrei A. Zhdanov, one of the leading members of the powerful Politburo until his death in 1948, and Alexander S. Scherbakov, head of the Soviet Army, who died in 1945.

The announcement by Tass, the Soviet news agency, said others marked for death included War Minister Marshal Alexander M. Vasilievsky; Marshal Ivan S. Konev, commander in chief of Soviet ground forces, and his chief of staff, Gen. S. M. Shtemenko; Marshal Leonid A. Govorov, who commanded Red armies in Finland during World War II, and Adm. G. I. Levchenko, deputy Navy minister.

The nine doctors were identified as Professors M. S. Vovsi, V. N. Vinogradov, M. B. Kogan, B. B. Kogan, P. I. Yegorov, A. I. Feldman, Y. A. Etinger, A. M. Drinsh-tein and G. I. Mayorov.

Tass said they "criminally undetermined" their patients' health, "deliberately made incorrect diagnoses and then, by incorrect healing methods, destroyed them."

All were identified as "therapeutic doctors" except Drinsh-tein, who was described as a neuropathologist.

Ex-Husband Blows Himself To Bits; Two Badly Injured

WESTON, W. Va. (AP)—"Look what's going to happen here," said Donzel Raymond McCray as he displayed five or six sticks of dynamite strapped to his waist.

As five persons, including his divorced wife, looked on in horror yesterday, he touched two small batteries to wires extending from the dynamite.

He was blown to bits and his wife and her lawyer, Charles N. Bland, were critically injured. The other three witnesses—Magistrate W. S. Fultz, Miss Mabel Brannon, and 78-year-old J. N. Osborn—escaped serious injury.

State Trooper Robert Elliott said the explosion came just as the magistrate had concluded a property settlement in his office.

McCray, 47, and his wife were divorced last September. They had six children.

Big 3 Powers Prod Russia To Conclude Treaty With Austria

WASHINGTON (AP)—The three big Western Powers have again prodded the USSR to conclude a treaty with Austria restoring its full independence.

In essentially identical notes, the United States, Britain and France told Moscow of their intention to summon an early meeting of the four-power treaty deputies in London "for the purpose of concluding an Austrian treaty."

Efforts to settle Austria's status and end the occupation by the four powers have come to grief, after 258 other meetings, over the Russian demands and claims against Austria. The negotiations faded in to what the United States called a "sterile exchange of notes."

Stalin Heads Group Of Soviet Leaders At Polish Recital

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Stalin headed a group of top Soviet leaders appearing at a concert and dramatic recital given last night by Polish sinners and actors, the Moscow press reported today.

The press said the concert was attended also by such leading members of the Presidium as Georgi M. Malenkov, V. M. Molotov, L. P. Beria, Marshal K. Y. Voroshilov and Nikita S. Khrushchev.

The appearance of such a high-ranking group for an affair of this nature was considered here to emphasize Soviet-Polish friendship as well as an indication that the leaders listed are in good health.

Insurgent Uprising Kills 3 In Venezuela

PANAMA, Panama (AP)—Travelers from Venezuela reported today that three persons were killed or wounded in a clash early last week in Caracas, the Venezuelan capital, between police and an insurgent group.

Several Army officers were arrested following the incident, according to the reports.

These sources said some 20 persons, presumably members of the outlawed Democratic Action Party, launched an attack on the National Guard school and an adjacent army barracks but police and troops, warned by an informer, repulsed them.

The casualties were members of the attacking group, the reports said.

Red Rail Lines Pounded Again

SEOUL (AP)—The U. S. 5th Air Force hurled a crushing 440-plane strike against Communist rail facilities deep in Northwest Korea today. It was the seventh hammering blow on the Red life line in five days.

U. S. Sabre jets, flying protective cover, downed two Communist MIG-15s, probably destroyed one and damaged another, the Air Force said.

The fighter-bombers streamed north in morning and afternoon raids of 220 planes each only a few hours after B-29 superforts plastered the area with 100 tons of bombs in a night strike.

Biggest news on the ground front was that two fresh Chinese Communist armies—about 70,000 men—have moved into the line on the Western Front. Intelligence officers said there was no indication of any new Red offensive in that area, however. They said one badly mauled Chinese army was being pulled out of the line.

The warplanes piled rubble atop rubble in their pulverizing attack on a bridge complex north of Sinanju. The bridges span the Chongchon River and form a bottleneck in the supply line which funnels Red war equipment from Manchuria and China southward to the front.

By RADER WINGET
NEW YORK (AP)—A general recovery sent the stock market ahead today with vigor.

The rise just about cancelled out the sharp losses suffered yesterday, with one plus sign after another today an almost absolute match for the minus sign seen in the same place yesterday.

The advance took the price level up as much as 1 to 2 points at the outside. Losses were few and scattered.

The best areas of gain were railroads, steels, motors, aircrafts, rubbers, and chemicals, and fairly good gains were displayed in radio-television issues, farm implements, and a long list of miscellaneous issues.

Higher stocks with advances of a point or more included Republic Steel, Chrysler, Goodrich, Caterpillar Tractor, Boeing, United Aircraft, Zenith Radio, Allied Chemical, General Electric, Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, and Southern Railway.

Also ahead were U. S. Steel, General Motors, Anaconda Copper, Du Pont, American Tobacco, Pennsylvania Railroad, Nickel Plate, Sinclair Oil, American Airlines, and Lehigh Portland Cement.

Aliens Must Report Current Addresses

Aliens in this country have 24 days in which to report to the Immigration and Naturalization Service their current address in compliance with the McCarran-Walters Immigration Act, M. H. Powers of the Immigration Service, said today.

Failure to do so by January 30 may mean deportation and possible fines and imprisonment. In addition, all aliens over 18 years of age must now carry with them at all times their alien registration cards, he said.

The addresses were first required under the Internal Security Act of 1950, but under the present law the penalty has been stiffened.

Every alien with two exceptions must file his address during January. Address reports likewise must be filed for aliens under 14 years by their parents or legal guardians, who will be held responsible for any failure to register.

A special form has been prepared for filing addresses and these may be obtained from any postoffice or immigration and naturalization office, Powers pointed out.

The card asks the alien for his full name, residence address, alien registration number, date and place of birth and date and place of entry into the United States.

When this card is completed it must be signed and returned in person to the postoffice or immigration office. This card must not be mailed.

Only exceptions to the requirement are Canadian students who are here as temporary visitors for less than six months. Citizens of other countries who come here for less than 30 days also do not have to register.

In case of a change of address, the alien within 10 days must register his new address with the postoffice or immigration office.

Ace Back In Korea

SEOUL (AP)—Maj. James Jabara, first American jet ace, returned to Korea yesterday to fly Sabre jets with his old outfit.

The Fifth Air Force today said Jabara, who downed six Communist MIGs on his first four in Korea, was assigned again to the 4th Fighter-Interceptor Wing.

Season Screw; Soo Sees Geese

SAULT STE MARIE (AP)—The warm weather here is stumping citizens.

There seems no logic to it. Ordinarily, it's mighty cold here in January.

Today's temperature was a nice, mellow 32 degrees at 7:30 a.m.

Former Fire Chief Frank Trombley came to town from his home two miles east of here to report he had seen two Canadian geese. Really, there's no sense to that. All the geese should be south by now. They leave in October.

This fits in with a reported northern Ontario-bound flight of ducks the other day.

The St. Marys River is still open. There's just a trifle of shoreline ice.

Old timers can't remember the river's being open at this date.

As a result, the spearing of herring hasn't yet started. There's not enough ice to hold up fishermen's shacks.

On Whitefish Bay commercial fishermen are still using boats.

Prentiss Brown Says Mackinac Bridge Will Be Started In Spring

LANSING (AP)—Prentiss M. Brown, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, said today he has assurance that revenue bonds to finance the bridge will be sold in time to start construction this spring.

Brown announced the receipt of a progress report from B. J. Van Ingen, New York investment banker, whose firm has been working on the revenue bonds since last October.

"He told the Authority," Brown said, "that preliminary negotiations with contractors for nearly all the construction had been completed and that bids from these contractors indicated that the financing was completely feasible."

At the same time, Brown announced that the Authority had appointed D. B. Steinman, New York consulting engineer, to prepare the final design for the structure.

Brown said that Dr. Steinman, one of the nation's leading bridge engineers, was one of the three engineers recommended by the University of Michigan School of Engineering to act as consultant.

Glenn B. Woodruff, San Francisco consulting engineer and one of the other engineers recommended as consultants, will work with Dr. Steinman, Brown said.

"There are still a great many obstacles to overcome," Brown said. "Permits and approvals of all sorts from federal and state agencies will be required. Then there will be undoubtedly unforeseen construction difficulties, but once we have the money we will have hurdled the greatest obstacle."

"Our engineers have set themselves an ambitious goal, the opening of the bridge by Nov. 1, 1956. We shall do all we can to help them to succeed."

He will deliver over all four television networks at 10:30 p.m., EST, Thursday.

Legislators Dread Task Ahead For Them In Lansing

LANSING (AP)—Legislators turn their reluctant feet toward the state capitol today in preparation for tomorrow's opening of the "cross-roads" 67th Michigan Legislature.

There is no joy in lawmakers' hearts this year because most of them know they must find the answer to a nearly bankrupt State Treasury.

The first action will come tonight when 66 House Republicans meet in secret caucus to select the new Speaker of the House.

The doers have pegged Rep. Arnell Engstrom of Traverse City as the winner, with the possibility his major opponent, Rep. Wade Van Valkenburg of Kalamazoo might be given the post of Speaker Pro Tempore as a consolation prize.

The Legislature will assemble at noon Wednesday, will spend the day in organizational duties and expects to hear Gov. Williams' message at 11 a. m. Thursday.

Negro Girl Accused Of Stabbing Young Father At Jackson

JACKSON (AP)—A 24-year-old Negro woman was held on $3,500 bond today pending examination on a charge of manslaughter in the stabbing of a father of three children.

Pauline Stokes will be examined Jan. 16 in the death of Sylvester Holman, 28, at an American Legion Post early Sunday morning.

She told police Holman, also a Negro, threatened her when she refused to dance with him, and the stabbing followed.

Bombing And Blockade Of Red China Favored By Wartime Admiral

WASHINGTON (AP)—The head of the American wartime Navy, Adm. Ernest J. King, proposes blockade and bombing of Red China to step up pressure on the Communist adversary in Korea.

The retired fleet admiral also said, in a copyrighted interview published yesterday by the magazine U. S. News & World Report, he believed President-elect Eisenhower would "come up with a workable solution" to end the stalemate.

King added, "Don't forget the bombing," but he did not elaborate as to whether he meant United States or Chinese Nationalist foot troops.
